

Walsh Hall Suggested Packing List:

BASICS:

- Bedding: Extra-long twin sheets (2 sets; when one is in wash), Comforter, Pillow, Pillow Case, Mattress protector
- 4 towels: Hair, Body, Face, Spare
- Shower Caddy, Wash cloth/Loofah, Shower shoes (cheap flip flops)
- Toiletries: hair, makeup, cleansing, etc...
- Laundry Basket/Bag and Detergent
- Quarters for Laundry (or load your student ID with Domer Dollars)
- Alarm Clock (a reliable one, in case your phone dies)
- Fans (No A/C): small one for your bed/desk, talk to roommate re: larger one
- Basic School Supplies: notebooks, notecards, pens, pencils, a few binders, glue, scissors, tape, stapler, paperclips, backpack
- Extension cords, power strip, surge protector
- Clothes hangers (Wonder Hanger saves so much space!)
- Clothes: South Bend experiences ALL the seasons so bring layers! Winter is bitter cold. (But you can also have your parents ship you items). Remember job interview outfit, work out clothes, and pjs that you don't mind everyone seeing (for those late-night fire drills!)
- Cup, plate, bowl, utensils, dish towel
- Basic cleaning supplies (Clorox or Lysol wipes are perfect)
- Basic First Aid/Pharmacy: Ibuprofen, Tylenol, Tissues, Antacid, Band Aids, Cough Drops, etc...
- Umbrella/Raincoat/Rainboots
- Any necessary medications/vitamins-with the prescriptions so they can be refilled if necessary-ND has a pharmacy on campus.

OPTIONAL

- *Couch/Futon: but most first years don't have room—WAIT to check your room size before buying one. Amazon can always deliver to the door after you arrive.
- *TV/DVD Player: though a computer works fine, too. WAIT to buy this until you see the size of your room and check with roommate.
- Sports Equipment: cleats, lacrosse stick, etc... (Walsh has great intermurals!)
- Egg carton pad or mattress pad
- Bike: you can, but it's not necessary because ND has the "LimeBike" program now
- Misc:
 - Floor Lamp, Camera, Water Purifier, Collapsible Drying Rack, Batteries
 - Stackable Crates, or any portable (vertical) storage items
 - Bed Risers: if you choose not to bunk your beds, give more room for storage.
 - USB Data Sticks: if you want to be free from laptop
 - Plastic drawers or tubs for storage under the bed
- Musical Instrument: come play with a group or at Mass with us!
- Auto Shut Off Coffee Pots and Keurigs are allowed, but buy REUSABLE cups #green!

RECOMMENDED:

- Simple Bathrobe: for walking to communal bathroom
- Pictures home, friends and family, other decor
- Basic tool kit
- Laptop (there are computer clusters all over campus, but having your own is very convenient)
- Dry Erase Board and markers for your door
- Carpet or rug (floors do get cold-check with roommate)
- Small Refrigerator (can be bought or rented here-check with roommate)
- A few dance dresses/attire for formals
- Other fun costumes for themed dances, pep rallies, and parties
- Sleeping Bag: for when friends visit or when Walsh takes trips!
- Back of Door Hanging Racks: Be sure to pad the edges of these racks so you don't get charged for damage to your door at the end of the year!
- Hanging shoe bags also offer helpful vertical storage for more than just shoes! Also hanging jewelry organizers are amazing space savers, too!
- Reusable Waterbottle
- Some non-perishable snacks
- Headphones: respect your roommate's study time!
- ClipLamp for your bed: respect your roommate's sleep!
- Desk organizers
- Travel sewing kit
- Approved Wall Mounting: 3M Command poster strips, Blue painters tape and removable glue dots.
- Official Identification: Bring Passport or Social Security Card/Birth Certificate/Driver's License, if you plan on working on campus.
- Stamps

DO NOT BRING

- Irons or an ironing board—Walsh has (new) common ones for all to use.
- Large Fridge (cannot exceed 5.0 cubic feet)
- Microwave: Walsh has one on every floor and two in kitchen
- Hot plates, coffee pots, toasters, toaster ovens, George Foreman grills
- Portable Air Conditioners (including dual purpose fans)
- Pets (non carnivorous fish are ok, but tanks need to be under 30 gallons)
- Self Stick floor tiles, Carpet Tape, Nails, Adhesive Squares, Poster Putty
- Candles, Incense, (including any other items with open flames)
- Halogen lamps with bulbs higher than 300 watts
- Ceiling Fans, Water Beds (yep. Sorry.)
- Vacuum Cleaners: Walsh has one on every floor.
